A CAPSULE HISTORY OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL IN SEATTLE

1890- The first professional baseball team in Seattle was organized. The Seattle Reds played in the Class-C Pacific Northwest League.

1892- The Reds (first-half champions) won the P.N.L. Pennant when the Portland club declined to enter the playoffs because of financial problems.

1896- Club was re-named "Braves", and moved into its first stadium (Athletic Park - 14th and Yesler).

1906-17 Seattle ended its membership in the P.C.L. and joined the Class-B Northwestern League.

1919 Seattle re-joined the Pacific Coast League. The club was named "Indians" and played a 225-game schedule (The extended-season format continued through the 1957 P.C.L. season).

1937 Emil Sick bought the Seattle franchise for $115,000, and immediately changed the nickname to "Rainiers" (Sick also owned and operated the Rainier Brewing Co.).

1938 On June 15, the Rainiers moved into the newly-built Sicks' Stadium (seating capacity of 11,500). Local sports hero Fred Hutchinson began his rookie season and posted a 25-7 record.

1939-41 The Rainiers won three consecutive P.C.L. pennants.

1955 Hutchinson returned as manager of the Rainiers and led the club to another P.C.L. crown. In addition, the first official proposition for a domed stadium in Seattle was made (Bond issues for the project failed in 1960 and '64).

1960 Sick sold the club to the Boston Red Sox. Seattle became the Red Sox triple-A affiliate.

1966-68 The California Angels purchased the club, and Bob Lemon managed Seattle to its last baseball champioinship.

1967 Public approval was given for funds needed to build a domed stadium (Completion was scheduled to be prior to the 1972 season).

1969 The Seattle Pilots came into existence and began play in the American League. Sicks' Stadium was expanded to seat 28,500 and 677,944 fans came out to watch the 64-98 expansion team. Third baseman Tommy Harper led the junior circuit with 73 stolen bases.

1970 On April 1, financial difficulties forced the Pilots to move to Milwaukee (Club was re-named "Brewers"). Plans to build a domed stadium were temporarily interrupted.

1972-76 Seattle fielded a team in the Class-A Northwest League.

1977 On April 6, major league baseball returned to Seattle when the Mariners played the California Angels before a Kingdome crowd of 57,762. The M's starting pitcher that night was Diego Segui, a member of the 1969 Pilots.

Formerly served Mr. Argyros as President and Chief Executive Officer of Arnel Management Company in Orange County, California (1980-1983) . . . Also served as General Counsel and Member of the Executive Committee of Arnel Development and Arnel Financial, affiliated companies.

Grew up in Louisville, Ky., where he starred in baseball, basketball and football, being named "Most Athletic" in his high school graduating class, while also earning National Merit Scholarship recognition . . . Following his senior year (1960), was offered professional baseball contracts by the Kansas City A's and the Cincinnati Reds, but declined in order to attend Purdue University . . . While at Purdue he was named "Outstanding Senior Man" for his academic and leadership achievements, and earned a bachelor of science degree in industrial engineering in 1964 . . . Matriculated to Stanford University Law School graduating with a J.D. Degree in 1967 . . . Currently a member of the State Bar of California and the American Bar Association . . . Has been active on numerous professional committees.

After law school, served as a line officer lieutenant on active duty for three and one-half years (1967-70) in the U.S. Navy as an Officer of the Deck for flight operations and formation steaming on an attack aircraft carrier . . . In 1971 joined Hill, Farrer & Burrill, a major West Coast law firm . . . Specialized in business and corporate law making partner before taking a leave of absence to become President and Chief Operating Officer of a leading national furniture manufacturer and importer (1977-1980).

Chuck, his wife Susan and their daughters Dorrie (17) and Katherine (15) and son Chuck (6) make their home in Bellevue. The Armstrongs are actively involved in a number of civic, charitable and community activities.

DICK BALDERSON

Vice President, Baseball Operations

Born February 7, 1946 in Newport News, Va . . . Named Vice President, Baseball Operations on October 8, 1985 . . . Responsible for the Mariners' major league operations, player development and scouting departments.

Prior to joining the Mariners, he served as the Kansas City Royals' director of player development . . . In his ten years with the Royals' administration (joined the K.C. organization in April 1976), he has been directly responsible for the formation and direction of one of baseball's most successful minor league systems.

His first association with the Royals came as a player in 1968 (non-drafted free agent) . . . His minor league pitching career ended in June 1975 at Double A Jacksonville (Southern League) . . . He moved to the Royals' front office prior to the '76 season, assuming the duties of assistant farm director . . . Promoted to the position of director of minor league operations in 1980 . . . In October 1981, he received another promotion and was named director of scouting and player development.

A graduate of the University of Richmond, he earned a bachelor of arts degree in history while starring on the Spiders' baseball team (1966-68) . . . He still holds the school's single-season marks for complete games, shutouts and innings pitched . . . He is also the Spiders' all-time leader in complete games, shutouts and ERA (1.58).

Dick and his wife, Marcia, reside in Bellevue with son, Brett (8) and daughter, Melissa (3).

BRIAN BEGGS

Vice President, Finance & Administration

Born October 18, 1946 in Palo Alto, California . . . Promoted to Vice President on March 15, 1983 from his previous position as the club's Controller which he held for two years . . . Responsible for all financial and administrative functions of the organization.

A graduate of Whitman College in Walla Walla with a B.A. in Economics and the University of Santa Clara with an M.B.A. . . . Joined the Mariners in March of 1981 . . . Prior to entering baseball, he spent seven years with the Dole foods division of Castle & Cooke, Inc., one of the original large Hawaiian corporations . . . Immediately prior to coming on board with the Mariners he was chief financial officer of Dole Thailand, Ltd. . . While in this position he and his family lived in Bangkok, Thailand.

Long a fan of baseball, he has been involved with the sport for many years as a player in youth leagues and, later as a coach and manager of youth baseball teams . . . As a specialist in strategic planning and financial management, his skills are well suited to the ever increasing need for the sound application of proven business principles to the unique undertaking of providing major league baseball to the Pacific Northwest.

Brian and his wife, Vicki, reside in Woodinville with their son, Rob (19) and daughter, Kristen (15).

BILL KNUDSEN

Vice President, Marketing and Sales

Born October 1943 in Missoula, Montana . . . Named Vice President of Marketing and Sales on October 8, 1984 . . . His department's responsibilities include management of all sales and marketing programs, the Mariner radio and television relationships, advertising, ticketing services, promotions, public affairs and corporate sponsorships and special events.

Graduated from Shoreline High School in 1961, he attended both the University of Washington and Northwestern University Business School in Evanston, Illinois. Prior to joining the Mariners, he was Vice President/General Manager of KSEA 101 FM (a division of KIRO, Inc.). Previous to that he was General Sales Manager at KVI 570, KOL AM/FM in Seattle. He began his business career as a stockbroker in Seattle in the mid-60's at Fox-Raff & Co., where he rose to the position of Vice President, and Shearson-Hammill and Co., prior to beginning a long and successful broadcast career.

Since Bill joined the Mariners in the fall of 1984, season ticket and advertising sales have more than doubled and, both the quality and quantity of Mariner promotions have improved. Bill's office has initiated numerous new programs targeted to kids, including the Jr. Mariner Athletic Field Project; the Mariner Youth Baseball Foundation and Project KidsPlace as well as the Mariner "Family Sections" in the ballpark.

Bill and his wife, Ellie, currently live in the Yarrowwood area of Bellevue with their son Matthew (5) and daughter Jessica, who will have her second birthday this summer.

THE RBI CLUB

The RBI Club is a group of local business men and women who are dedicated to the development of the game of baseball in the Pacific Northwest, and dedicated in particular to the Seattle Mariners. RBI stands for "Real Baseball Involvement", and the members have become an instrumental part of Mariner baseball since the charter was set in February of 1980. The major thrust has been in the area of season ticket sales. The current commissioner is Chuck Cereghino (Weyerhauser). Mr. Cereghino is assited by Mr. Merle Swenson (S&W Fine Foods), Mr. Ron Elgin (Elgin Syferd), Mr. Bob Ebbesen (President of Thriftway) and more than 100 business people who believe very strongly that major league baseball is extremely important to the Pacific Northwest. Club members attend a monthly luncheon, host an annual golf tournament and visit the Mariners during spring training in Tempe.

RICK GRIFFIN
Head Trainer

Only the second trainer in the club's 10-year history (Gary Nicholson served as trainer for the first 6 seasons), Rick enters his sixth season with the Mariners. Prior to joining the M's on Feb. 3, 1983, he worked as a full-time trainer at the nationally-recognized Ballard Sports Medicine Clinic in Seattle for 2 years (continues to serve as a consultant). He has also served as coordinator of the medical and training staffs for Washington state's major high school championship events. A native of Utah, Rick earned a B.A. in health education at Utah State and a B.S. in health and physical education at the University of Oregon. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. His baseball background includes 4 seasons (1977-81) working with the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest League (a member of the Cincinnati Reds minor league system). While in Eugene he also served as head athletic trainer, counselor and instructor at Winston Churchill High School. Specializing in running injuries, Rick also served as a trainer at the U.S.A. Olympic Track and Field Trials (1980) and the NCAA Track and Field Championships (1979). In 1982 he conducted a sports medicine lecture tour in Australia. Rick served as the American League trainer for the All-Star game in 1987. At 32 years of age he continues to rank among the youngest head trainers in professional sports.

PETE SHMOCK
Strength & Conditioning Coach

The only strength & conditioning coach in club history, Pete is in his 5th season with the Mariners. The 37-year-old Seattle resident was born in Delmar, Calif. He attended the University of Oregon on a track & field scholarship and graduated with a degree in business administration in 1972. A four-year letterman, Pete achieved All-America status as a senior in 1972, when he was recognized as one of the nation's top shot putters. He was a member of the 1976 and 1980 U.S.A. Olympic team (shot put). His primary responsibilities involve the design and implementation of specialized strength and conditioning programs for year round use by all players.

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVERS

The "trading deadline" is July 31. Waivers are required for any inter- or intra-Major League assignment during the period beginning August 1 and ending at 5 pm ET the day after the end of the season. During the other ten months of the year no waivers are needed.

It will be easier to compute which players need waivers before they may be optioned: if three years (less one for each previously spent on option) have elapsed since the player actually reported to the Major Leagues for the first time, waivers are required. The date of actual physical reporting will be used as the benchmark instead of the date the player was first placed on a club's 40-man roster.

The procedure for outright assignments to the National Association remains unchanged from the 31st day of each season until August 31; during this period, ordinary waivers are required. However, from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season, special waivers are required:

> The club must tender a special waiver request specifying that waivers are requested for the purpose of outright assignment to the National Association. The claiming period, as with other waivers, is three business days, and an assignment pursuant to special waivers must be completed by 2 pm ET the seventh day after the waivers were secured.

Seventy-two-hour waivers, secured on players recalled not to report, continue unaffected except insofar as they no longer suffice for an outright assignment to the National Association during those times in the year when special waivers are required.

TEMPE DIABLO STADIUM

Tempe's Diablo Stadium was completed in 1968, and was used by the Seattle Pilots and Milwaukee Brewers for spring training from 1969-71. In addition to the stadium, the complex includes two and a half diamonds for baseball and two recreational fields. Stadium capacity is 5,600; dimensions are 360 down each line, 420 to the power alleys, and 430 to center. The Mariners have been training there since the 1977 expansion season. It is owned and operated by the City of Tempe Parks and Recreation Department.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average—divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A is 12-of-40 or .300.

Slugging Percentage—divide the number of total bases by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6). one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

Earned Run Average—the total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Average—the sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952.

Won-Loss Percentage—divide the number of victories by the total number of games played. Example: 22 wins and 18 losses produce a winning percentage of .550.

Magic Number—determine the number of games yet to be played by the division leader, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

GROUND RULES

PHOTOGRAPHERS' AREA

The ball is "in play" if it hits the retaining fence and bounces back into the playing field.

HITTING SUSPENDED OBJECTS

A batted ball hitting any suspended object, such as speakers, wires, streamers, etc. in fair territory shall be judged fair or foul in relation to where it lands or is touched by a fielder. If caught by a fielder, the batter is out and base runners advance at their own risk.

A batted ball hitting any suspended object in foul territory is a foul ball, regardless of where it lands or is touched by a fielder. If the ball is caught by a fielder, the batter is out and the base runners advance at their own risk.

A batted ball sticking in any suspended object in foul territory shall be called a strike. A batted ball sticking in any suspended object in fair territory shall be a ground rule double.

OUTFIELD AREA

Fairly batted ball clearing the wall is home run. Fairly batted ball bouncing over the wall is a ground rule double.

DUGOUTS

A ball shall be considered "thrown into the dugout" only if it hits an object or person within the dugout. A thrown ball hitting the lip at the base of the dugout or the frame around the dugout and bouncing back into the playing field shall be "in play".

A thrown ball hitting any player's equipment that is left on or in front of the dugout yellow line shall be considered in the dugout.

BULLPEN AREAS

A ball shall be considered in play going into the bullpen area and coming back out onto the playing field. A ball going into the bullpen area and obstructed by a player, equipment or bench should be called dead.

BROADCASTERS

DAVE NIEHAUS has been behind the microphone for every Mariner regular season game since joining the American League in 1977 — except one (his son Andy was graduated from Interlake High School in June, 1982). He is recognized as one of the best and most exciting broadcasters in the game of baseball (rated in the top four in major league baseball in a 1986 SPORT Magazine Poll), and he has become instantly identified with Mariner baseball wherever he goes. His expressions like "My Oh My" and "It will fly away" (for home runs) have become familiar throughout the Northwest.

Dave was born and raised in Princeton, Indiana, and is a graduate of Indiana University, where he worked for the campus radio station. He then went to work for the Armed Forces radio and TV service, calling the action for Los Angeles Dodger games before moving to New York to handle Yankee baseball as well as basketball and hockey from Madison Square Garden. After leaving the service, he returned to work in Los Angeles to broadcast the Dodgers, Rams and Lakers. From 1969-76, he teamed with Dick Enberg and Don Drysdale to call the action for the California Angels on KMPC Radio. Dave also broadcasted UCLA football and basketball (1973-76). He now resides in Bellevue with his wife Marilyn and their children Andy, Matt and Greta.

RICK RIZZS (pronounced RIZ) joined the Mariners in 1983 and handled the play-by-play with Dave Niehaus on radio and television. Rizzs, 33, broadcast the Columbus (Ohio) Clippers of the International League (AAA) and Ohio State football for two seasons on WBNS Radio, where he also served as sports director. He is a 1975 graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale. From 1975-80, Rick was the play-by-play announcer at the AA level with the Alexandria Aces, Amarillo Gold Sox and Memphis Chicks. He was named the Ohio "Sportscaster of the Year" in 1981 by the Ohio Sportscasters Association. During the off-season, Rick is involved with the M's Speaker's Bureau and works closely with the local Cystic Fibrosis chapter and their "65 Roses" Club. He now resides in Bellevue.

JOE SIMPSON begins his second season as the color commentator for all Mariner telecasts in 1987. "Gentleman Joe" spent the majority of his big league career as a Mariner outfielder (1979-82), but also saw action with the Los Angeles Dodgers and Kansas City Royals.

After a sparkling collegiate career at the University of Oklahoma, where he earned All-America honors his senior year, Simpson was taken by the Dodgers in the third round of the 1973 June draft.

In his first season with Seattle, Simpson played in 120 games and batted .283. He hit a combined .252 in four seasons with the M's and concluded his major league career with Kansas City in 1983.

In 1985 he served as a commentator for Oklahoma City (AAA) of the American Association. In 1986, Simpson covered a variety of games, including the NCAA Regional Tournament in Stillwater, Oklahoma

Joe currently resides in Norman, Ok., with his wife Kathy and children Meg and Gabe.

RADIO/TELEVISION INFO

NAMING THE MARINERS

The nickname "Mariners" was selected by the ownership of the Seattle franchise after a "Name the Team Contest" that resulted in over 15,000 entries and over 600 different names being submitted.

When the name "Mariners" was chosen, all the entries suggesting the name were reviewed for their reasons (in 25 words or less).

The winner was Roger Szmodis of Bellevue, Wash. His entry read "I've selected Mariners because of the natural association between the sea and Seattle and her people, who have been challenged and ewarded by it."

ITEMS OF INTEREST

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE—All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS—502 or more plate appearances, 162 or more innings.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME—Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Twi-night double-headers shall be included in double-header statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE—A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles. The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. . . The winter meeting is conducted by conference phone. . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age. . . Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase—Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age—now drafted in Regular Phase). . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player. . . The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13 team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

GAME-WINNING RBI — The game-winning RBI became an official baseball statistic in 1980. It is determined by the "run batted in that gives a team a lead that it never relinquished."

INTERLEAGUE TRADING PERIODS—From 12:01 A.M. on fifth day after completion of world series thru midnight preceding the last scheduled day of the winter meetings, and from 12:01 A.M., Feb. 15 thru midnight, April 1.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE—Baseball measures service in years and days (years = 172 days). 172 days on the active roster during the regular season constitutes a full year.

MAJOR LEAGUE TRADING REGULATIONS—A.L. waivers are not necessary to assign a player contract from one club to another within the league from midnight on the last day of the season thru midnight, June 15 (Pacific time).

A.L. waivers are necessary to assign a player contract from one club to another within the league from 12:01 A.M., June 16 thru midnight, the last day of the season (Pacific time).

A.L. waivers are necessary before a player contract may be assigned from the American League to the National League except during inter-league trading periods. Both A.L. and N.L. waivers are necessary between 12:01 A.M., June 16 and midnight, the last day of the season.

PLAYER LIMITS—24 players from opening day through August 31. . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season. . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS—A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE—A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1.) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; 2.) he is not the winning pitcher; and 3.) he qualifies under one of the following conditions; a.) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b.) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or c.) he pitched effectively for at least three innings.
